Letter no. 363 dated 27th November 1902, from the Dy Magr of Tumkur, reporting that a private cover affixed with a Service postage label addressed to Vera Kalinoff p.p.a. has been ordered to be detained pending investigation.

Note.

The above letter was 'recorded' in G.O. 947 dated 26th December 1902, and the Dy Magr was requested to report the result of the further investigation for the information of Govt.

In reply, the Dy Magr now reports that it has not been possible to find out the whereabouts of the writer of the cover and that therefore the case will be retained on the file for 3 years for the sake of the report in due form.

On the draft of G.O. no 947 above referred to, the Secretary ~~ordered~~ observed as follows:

Sir,

With reference to Government

Proceedings No: 1857-8/2.7.680/01/03 requesting to cause energetic efforts to be made to find out the writer of the cover with a service postage stamp addressed to Sira Kalingappa and to ascertain how he came by the stamp, I have the honor to state that the Superintendent of Police, Junker, who enquired into the matter, reports that it has not been possible to trace the writer of the private cover. Copy of docket No: 36 of the 15th July 1902 from the Deputy Commissioner, Junker, on the subject is herewith forwarded for information.

His docket No: $\frac{235}{16}$ dated 9th July 1903.

Has the honor to state that the Superintendent of Police made careful enquiries to find out the writer of the letter to which a Service label has been affixed and that as the writing in the letter is feigned

feigned purposely it is not possible to fix the identity of the person that wrote or sent it. The addressee of the letter being in view, the Head Quarter Inspector was sent to ascertain from him the whereabouts of the person. A copy of the statement given by the addressee is herewith sent for information. The addressee himself that he does not know the writer nor the handwriting and suggests that some of his enemies (of whom there are a large number) might have done it. But as stated above, the writing being not natural, it is almost impracticable to trace the writer. The case however is kept on, in the file for the submission of a "C" sheet.
